Gentlemen:

Please send me a list of Your monographs
on coins and medals.

I am also interested in learning of the requirements for membership in Your society,
and the privileges thereof.

Sincerely,

New York City

Dear Sir:

I am glad to enclose a list of Notes and Monographs published by this Society; also an application card for Associate Membership. The annual dues are five dollars and this entitles you to receive copies of our publications through the year. You will note that the year's dues do not come as high as would the cost of individual copies. Beside this, we should be glad to be of assistance to you in any possible way. Upon the return of your application your name would be laid before the Council at its next meeting.

We should be pleased to hear from you.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
